From Our Vicar

We continue to live into the Pentecost Season or what also is known as Ordinary Time, the longest liturgical season of the year. It is the time that we are aware of the Spirit's presence around us as we go about our everyday lives. It is the Summer Solstice, beginning of Summer and end of the Spring. It is a time of changing rhythm when we often adjust our schedules to include vacations, beach visits, picnics and special family gatherings. In times of change, it is also a time of reflection. We consider projects that we want to accomplish, and often put things away that are already done.

From Our Vicar...

God's Holy Spirit cannot be grasped, contained, comprehended, controlled, manipulated or possessed. The Spirit grasps us, possesses us.

Like fire, it is alive and free. We feel the heat of the flames, but we cannot enclose and retain them in our hands. Like wind, we can hear it in the trees, feel it on our faces as we walk in the hills, but if we try to grasp and hold it in our hands it is lost.

-Br. Geoffrey Tristram

Society of Saint John the Evangelist

We continue to live into the Pentecost Season or what also is known as Ordinary Time, the longest liturgical season of the year. It is the time that we are aware of the Spirit's presence around us as we go about our everyday lives. It is the Summer Solstice, beginning of Summer and end of the Spring. It is a time of changing rhythm when we often adjust our schedules to include vacations, beach visits, picnics and special family gatherings. In times of change, it is also a time of reflection. We consider projects that we want to accomplish, and often put things away that are already done.

Toward the end of his life, St. Francis told the brothers, "Let us begin, brothers, to serve the Lord God, for up until now we done little or nothing." I wonder if we consider such a statement of one whom we know served so selflessly and constantly. Yet, St. Francis would each day begin anew to consider how he would serve, and where God was calling him.

In this season of Ordinary Time, I offer this consideration as we go about our activities. Would we consider each morning a simple prayer saying, "God, how can we be in this day your light and Holy Spirit as we go to work, play, be with friends and family?" As we welcome summer's play and relaxation, might we look around and notice where we see the Holy Spirit's presence? Are we willing to ask the Holy Spirit to grasp us, possess us, feel ourselves alive once again in all God's love.

In Quantum physics, the cosmos is mirrored in the microcosm. In other words, we can see the movement of the cosmos in the smallest moments of life. As we live into this mystery, and allow ourselves to experience this from one small place to the next, we realize the Spirit is contagious, shareable and reshapes the world.

That's what we're on about, changing the moment from one to another in God's love. Wake up tomorrow and be expectant to change the moments of your ordinary life through the presence of God's Spirit moving through you, and be alive to the quickening of each small moment that you are living.

Blessed Summer of Joy to you!

What Does It Mean to Love and Serve God?

Each week we pray God "Send us now into the world in peace ... to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart." What does it mean to love and serve God in our everyday lives? Education for Ministry (EfM) is a four-year program of theological education developed to answer that question. EfM is designed for lay people -- all of us! -- who are interested in deepening our understanding of the Christian faith and exploring our ministry as lay persons. Through EfM, you will:

- Study the Bible, church history, and theology
- Engage in theological reflection and discussion
- Build deep relationships with other people of faith

EfM is a great way to learn more about yourself, your faith, and your work in the world at large. Some EfM groups meet in-person, others meet online, and most offer hybrid solutions. If you are interested in learning more, please contact Elizabeth Bryant at (805) 469-8897 or e.vana.bryant@gmail.com Elizabeth can help you to find an EfM group that suits your needs.

Enroll in EfM today and discover your call to every day ministry!
